

Rule 48.1 Number of Jurors

In all civil trials, juries shall begin with at least six (6) and no more than twelve (12) members, and each juror must participate in the verdict unless excused under Fed. R. Civ. P. 47(c).

Last revised 12/1/09. See Historical Notes for full revision history.