

Rule 66.1 Receiverships

(a) Inventories. Unless the Court otherwise orders, a receiver or similar officer, as soon as practicable after appointment and not later than sixty (60) days after he or she has taken possession of the estate, shall file an inventory of all the property and assets in the receiver's possession, or in the possession of others who hold possession as his or her agent, and in a separate schedule an inventory of the property and assets of the estate not reduced to possession by the receiver but claimed and held by others.

(b) Reports. Within one month after the filing of inventory and at regular intervals of one month thereafter until discharged, or at such times as the Court may direct, the receiver or other similar officer shall file reports of his or her receipts and expenditures and of acts and transactions in an official capacity.

(c) Compensation of Receivers, Attorneys, and Others. The compensation of receivers or similar officers, their counsel and all those who may have been appointed by the Court to aid in the administration of the estate, the conduct of its business, the discovery and acquisition of its assets, the formation of reorganization plans, and the like, shall be ascertained and awarded by the Court in its discretion. Such an allowance shall be made only on such notice to creditors and other persons in interest as the Court may direct. The notice shall state the amount claimed by each applicant. Application shall be made in accordance with appropriate Bankruptcy Rules.

(d) Administration of Estates. In all other respects the receiver or similar officer shall administer the estate as nearly as may be in accordance with the practice in the administration of estates in bankruptcy, except as otherwise ordered by the Court.
