

Foreclosure Sales

United States District Court, Northern District of Ohio

Conditions of the Sale

- Sales are performed as public auctions. All bidding is done orally. Bids begin at 2/3 of the appraised value of the property unless dictated otherwise by the Court.
- Permission to enter the property is not permitted by law. This includes buyers, inspectors, appraisers, etc., unless a court order is obtained.
- All prior delinquencies and taxes that are currently due and payable, will be paid out of the proceeds of the sale. Taxes will not be prorated. Prospective purchasers should verify the amounts due on the tax liens (note: a county may sell its tax liens to a third party).
- A Deposit of 10% of the successful bid must be made immediately at the time of sale. Deposits are only accepted in cash, bank money order, or certified check made payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court. Please note that personal checks, company checks, letters of credit, or charge cards will not be accepted
- The balance of the purchase must be paid within thirty (30) days of the sale date. If the balance is not paid within thirty (30) days, the purchaser shall be in contempt of court.
- If you are the successful bidder, a deed will be prepared by the plaintiff's attorney once a copy of the confirmation is received from the Court. Deed preparation takes approximately 2 to 4 weeks after confirmation. It is the purchaser's responsibility to have the deed recorded with the County Recorder's Office.
- The purchaser has no rights to the property until the sale has been confirmed. Usually 30 days after the auction date.
- From the time of the purchase and before a "Confirmation of Sale" is filed, there are legal filings that may occur by the property owner. These filings may result in the sale of the property being vacated.
- Appraisals may or may not include an interior examination of the premises. The purchaser has no rights to the property until the sale has been confirmed.
